

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

MARCH 5, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH MARCH 3, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

* The Fairfax County Animal Shelter is hosting its first ever "Become a Foster Parent Month" this March. As part of the event, the shelter will host a special orientation session for citizens interested in learning more about the animal foster care program in Fairfax County and how to become a foster care provider for the Fairfax County Animal Shelter's animals. The orientation session will be March 18, 2010 at 7 p.m. at the shelter located at 4500 West Ox Rd., Fairfax, VA

22030. To attend, citizens should RSVP to asdvolunteer@fairfaxcounty.gov. Foster care providers assist the shelter in saving animals' lives by providing temporary out-of-shelter care in their homes for some of the shelter's neediest animals—those who are too young for adoption or those who need special medical care or behavioral training.

Each year, the shelter places more than 320 animals into foster care. The majority of these animals are kittens and cats during the busy summer season. The shelter is hoping to add more foster care providers to its roster who can provide short-term care for dogs and puppies as well as for adult cats and kittens under 4 weeks of age who need to be bottle fed. No special experience is required to become a foster care provider other than a desire to help animals in need. The shelter provides training, supplies and medical care for the animals. Foster care providers must be 18 years and older and must go through the shelter's volunteer process, which includes a background check and home visit. The month-long "Become a Foster Parent" campaign begins March 1 and runs through the end of the month. To learn more about fostering check <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/animal/foster.htm>. For more information, contact asdvolunteer@fairfaxcounty.gov or call (703) 830-1100.
